A VOCATION VIEW: It is the beautiful task of Advent to awaken in all of us memories of goodness and thus to open the door of hope. First Sunday of Advent – HOPE!

A changing of the guard for SBAYA – St Benedict's Association of Young Adults had its beginnings in the time of Fr Michael de Stoop and has had two fantastic presidents – Priscilla Liem was the first president and for the past four years, in the time of Fr Epeli and Fr Dominic, Varun Jose has served in this role. Many wonderful young people have been a part of SBAYA and just as in the past, SBAYA is a great group of people today. Varun has recently decided to pass on the SBAYA President baton, to take on other good works (and breathe a little ☺) and to provide the opportunity for other SBAYA members to serve as president. Varun will be here at Mass and says he'll be on hand for help ☺ – so we'll be seeing plenty of his warm and kind smile and heart!

Priscilla and Varun, thank you for helping make SBAYA what it is and to all who have been by your side, thank you, too. You have all brought your own special character and talents to SBAYA and this has made SBAYA the truly impressive group it is. SBAYA has its own constitution and its members are elected to leadership roles. Last Saturday, 21st November, just ahead of the feast of Christ the King, SBAYA held its annual general meeting and Dominic Casanova was elected as the new SBAYA President. Many who attend Sunday night Mass will know Dominic who regularly serves on the altar. Dominic is a country boy from Wagga Wagga, now living in Sydney and studying for his Bachelor of Philosophy & Theology – he is the eldest of eight children! Michelle Oh, Augustine Chong, Alex Wong and Karl San Pedro, who serve on the altar and in St Scholastica's (Sunday night) Choir, were also elected to other SBAYA leadership roles. With thanks and congratulations to you all.

Entrance Antiphon:

To you, I lift up my soul, O my God. In you, I have trusted; let me not be put to shame. Nor let my enemies exult over me; and let none who hope in you be put to shame.

Communion Antiphon:

The Lord will bestow his bounty and our earth shall yield its increase.

Saint Andrew – was born at Bethsaida (Galilee). A fisherman and perhaps a disciple of John the Baptist. Introduced his brother, Simon Peter to Jesus and became one of the first to follow Christ. Mentioned a number of times in the Gospels, for example, in introducing some Gentiles to Jesus (John 12:20 ff). Widely venerated since ancient times and remembered as one of the Twelve who bore witness to the life, death and resurrection of Jesus.

Saint Francis Xavier – born at Xavier (Navarre) Spain in 1506, Francis was one of the first Jesuits. Though suffering from sciatica, he went to preach the Gospel in the Far East. For eleven years, in suffering and prayer, he brought the Gospel to India, Ceylon and Japan. He fell ill and died at the gates of China at age 46. He was canonised in 1662.

Saint John Damascene – born at Damascus in 675, John was active in business before becoming a monk. A renowned theologian, he defended the practice of honouring icons of the saints. He is outstanding for his writings about the Blessed Mother. Three homilies he wrote about Mary's Dormition are especially important in tracing the development of the doctrine of the Assumption.

Alleluia, alleluia!

Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mk 13:33-37

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

Stay awake! You never know when the Lord will come.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'Be on your guard, stay awake, because you never know when the time will come. It is like a man travelling abroad: he has gone from home, and left his servants in charge, each with his own task; and he has told the doorkeeper to stay awake. So stay awake, because you do not know when the master of the house is coming, evening, midnight, cockcrow, dawn; if he comes unexpectedly, he must not find you asleep. And what I say to you I say to all: Stay awake!'

WELCOME AND THANK YOU

Today we welcome Fr Chris Monaghan CP as our reflection writer. Fr Chris is President of Yarra Theological Union, University of Divinity, where he teaches both Old and New Testament. In his reflection, he will consider briefly each of the Scripture readings set down for the Sunday.

We are very grateful and thank Fr Brendan Byrne SJ, of the Jesuit College of Spirituality, University of Divinity, for his insightful reflections on the Gospels over the past three years.

Breaking Open the Word

THE SAVING WORD

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT / B

29 NOVEMBER 2020

THE CALL TO CONVERSION

As Advent begins, we set out once again to prepare our hearts for the great feast of God's humble presence among us. Expectation and complacency, longing and listlessness, can all be found in our hearts as we prepare for Christmas. Today's readings speak of our need for God's presence and our thankful response of faithfulness.

The reading from Isaiah is a passionate plea for renewal and change. The people have been left to their own devices for too long. If God would only tear open the heavens and come down, the mountains would melt before God's presence. Isaiah hopes that the hearts of the people of Israel should also melt so that God the great potter, could once more mould, shape, and breathe life into their hearts.

Paul's perspective is one of thanksgiving for the gifts that have already been given as the community waits for the Lord's return. Such gifts are given to sustain us as we wait for the moment when Jesus will finally be revealed in glory.

It is one thing to be grateful for blessings and gifts received but the Gospel calls us to take the next step of using these gifts faithfully. The parable of the master who leaves his servants in charge during his absence is as relevant today as in the days of Mark. It is important to note that each of the servants is entrusted with a task to be faithfully completed. As Advent begins each one of us is given the task of preparing our hearts and lives to welcome the Lord.

FIRST READING

Isa 63:16-17; 64:1, 3-8

A reading from the prophet Isaiah.

Oh, that you would tear the heavens apart and come down.

You, Lord, yourself are our Father,
Our Redeemer is your ancient name.
Why, Lord, leave us to stray from your ways and harden our hearts against fearing you?
Return, for the sake of your servants,
the tribes of your inheritance.
Oh, that you would tear the heavens open and come down — at your Presence the mountains would melt.

No ear has heard, no eye has seen any god but you act like this for those who trust him.

You guide those who act with integrity and keep your ways in mind.
You were angry when we were sinners;
we had long been rebels against you.
We were all like men unclean,
all that integrity of ours like filthy clothing.
We have all withered like leaves and our sins blew us away like the wind.
No one invoked your name
or roused himself to catch hold of you.
For you hid your face from us
and gave us up to the power of our sins.
And yet, Lord, you are our Father;
we the clay, you the potter,
we are all the work of your hand.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 79:2-3, 15-19. R. v. 4

R. Lord, make us turn to you, let us see your face and we shall be saved.

1. O shepherd of Israel, hear us,/ shine forth from your cherubim throne./ O Lord, rouse up your might./ O Lord, come to our help. R.

2. God of hosts, turn again, we implore,/ look down from heaven and see./ Visit this vine and protect it,/ the vine your right hand has planted. R.

3. May your hand be on the man you have chosen,/ the man you have given your strength./ And we shall never forsake you again:/ give us life that we may call upon your name. R.

SECOND READING

1 Cor 1:3-9

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians.

The revelation we looked for, Christ Jesus our Lord.

May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ send you grace and peace.

I never stop thanking God for all the graces you have received through Jesus Christ. I thank him that you have been enriched in so many ways, especially in your teachers and preachers; the witness to Christ has indeed been strong among you so that you will not be without any of the gifts of the Spirit while you are waiting for our Lord Jesus Christ to be revealed; and he will keep you steady and without blame until the last day, the day of our Lord Jesus Christ, because God by calling you has joined you to his Son, Jesus Christ; and God is faithful.
